No. 10. The Stolen Map,

In falling from the cliff, Alan and Helen land in a stream of water and hasten to rejoin Mears and Percival. As they approach the retrieved horses, Alan detects Percival rifling his saddlebags. Blake's guide deserts him and finding Madge brings her to Alan's camp where he tells Alan that Blake is the murderer of his (Alan's) partner. Madge steals the map but Alan recovers it and goes after the treasure. On locating the position of the mine they find that it will be necessary to blast in order to open the entrance. This is done and causes the ravine to be flooded, drowning Blake and his gang. Sir Percival reveals himself as a government agent on the trail of Blake, and explains that the betrothal stunt was merely a hoax to keep Alan and Helen apart until the murder had been cleared up. Alan and Helen are then married, bringing the story to a happy and successful finish.

THE END.
